YESTERDAY:

A database design & documentation, documentation about the class diagram & database implementation lololol, we also started thinking about the Analysis documentation

TODAY:

Today, we will be documenting the Analysis.

OBSTACLES:

LAURA: Yesterday, when I was tired I became closed off to new ideas and hindered the progress of the work. I will try to do better in the future by taking more breaks and resetting my mindset so that I will not be in a bad headspace in order to be a good productive member.
